COLLETT FESTIVAL 2019

We require that all carbooters abide by the following trading policies:

- No sale of tobacco of any description
- No sale of counterfeit goods of any description
- No sale of alcohol
- No sale of any type of food including cakes
- No sale of pets or livestock
- No sale of offensive weapons
- No sale of Age restricted goods when they are sold to under age buyers, displayed incorrectly or sold without the required licence.

Please note

Only caterers authorised by organisers are permitted to sell food and drink.

Persons found selling any of the above will be asked to leave.

Polite Notice

Abusive or aggressive behaviour towards staff, sellers, or buyers will not be tolerated. Anyone found acting in this manner will find themselves excluded from the grounds, and may also result in further action or prosecution.

Rubbish Policy:

- You are provided with a clean pitch and you are required to leave a clean pitch.
- There are no facilities on site for disposal of unwanted goods.
- Litter bins are provided for the disposal of normal waster and litter only.
- Action, to include, but not be limited to being banned from the site, will be taken against any person or persons leaving goods or rubbish on this site. Please leave your pitch, and this site, clean and clear of rubbish.

Note: The above is for guidance and if in doubt you should approach the local trading standards department for specific advice. It is the seller's responsibility to keep within the law. Buyers should be aware that they are purchasing second hand goods which do not come with any guarantee.
